

ORDINANCE # 8-2025

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING THE TIME OF MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS AND THE TERMS OF TOWN ELECTED OFFICIALS

WHEREAS, Indiana Code 3-10-7-2.9 provides that during the year preceding a municipal election conducted under the Indiana Code, a town may adopt an ordinance changing the time municipal elections are held for the offices of the town legislative body members and clerk-treasurer.

AND the date of the next election being November, 2027,

The Town Board of Oldenburg, Indiana now passes the following ordinance:

- (1) The next Town election shall occur in 2026, followed by an election in 2030 and each fourth year thereafter.
- (2) That the elections for town offices shall be held during general elections.
- (3) All three Town Board Offices shall be elected in 2026.
- (4) The persons elected to Town Board Office in 2026 shall serve a four year term commencing January 1, 2027. The next election for this office shall occur in 2030.
- (5) The Town Clerk-Treasurer shall be elected in 2026 to serve a four year term commencing January 1, 2027. The next election for this office shall occur in 2030.
- (6) The term of office of each town officer shall be four years.
